Portfolio Sub-Advisor

Mr. Sean Rogister's extensive expertise and background managing fixed income strategies is unique in Canada.

With over 25 years managing investment teams with some of our most well known global investment institutions, including almost 10 years managing the fixed income assets at OTPP (where assets under his management reached $38 billion). Mr. Rogister brings market knowledge, critical to understanding both global forces and sophisticated financial structures that influence value in the bond market. He co-founded Cortland Credit Group in 2013 and runs the firm's private debt fund (Cortland Credit Strategies L.P.) which has produced returns averaging 4% above inflation (annualized) with remarkably low volatility. His background includes a recent part-time role over 3 years as Adjunct Instructor in Fixed Income for the Smith School of Business at Queen's University Master of Finance Program and has provided industry expertise to Canada's Auditor General on the Federal Ministry of Finance's interest bearing debt management program. His accreditations include an ICD.D (Institute of Corporate Directors), CIM (CSC), MBA (U. of T.), and a BA (UWO).
